St. John the Evangelist Catholic Chapel Lacassine

Return to the Lord

A CAMPAIGN FOR OUR FUTURE

PARISH NEEDS

St. John the Evangelist mission chapel is growing. We have been tremendously blessed with increasing numbers of children involved in our catechism and faith formation activities. Likewise, parents and families have been actively participating and making our faith community strong and vibrant.

We are in desperate need of more CCD classrooms and a church hall large enough to hold functions for our children, families, and community. We have outgrown our current building, which is older and in need of significant repairs.

A new CCD building and church hall will cost much more than our parish share. However, with your help, we will begin securing funds needed and demonstrate to the diocese our seriousness of purpose and faith.

From Our Parish Pastor

"'The measure you give will be the measure you get back' (Luke 6:38). This campaign is an opportunity for you to give back to the Lord from the MANY gifts that you are blessed with and be assured you will be blessed with many more. It also helps us to add greatly to our CCD building fund."
